

Game Designer

Our goal at FunFair is a world of truly fair, decentralised online gaming powered by blockchain technology. Since our start in 2017, we have been leveraging the transparency and security of blockchain technologies across gaming. We started with our Platform, which led to our Wallet and Games products. FunFair continues to experiment, research and build on the latest tech to improve the gaming ecosystem.

We're looking for people who share our passion and excitement for technology and are full of ideas to help us perform better and take the next step. We are all about teamwork, but if you stand out from the crowd, you'll certainly be rewarded for doing so.

If you are full of innovative ideas and would like to work with a team that encourages and supports each other, then FunFair is the one for you.

THE ROLE

The role is a remote position on a full time permanent employed basis, accepting applicants located in the UK, Isle of Man and Ireland.

We are looking for an experienced game designer who is able to concept and design all elements within a game. Understanding progression and reward systems, designing features that engage, excite and retain players and controlling virtual economies. Being empowered to work both independently and with your peers, you will produce specifications for the entire game.

Reporting to the Creative Director and working alongside experienced game developers you will be responsible for concepting and managing all aspects of the design, economic balancing, writing documentation and supporting production from concept to final product.

REQUIREMENTS

- Proven working experience in full lifecycle game design.
- Strong knowledge of macro and behavioural economics to create an in-game economy and life cycle, and solid understanding of progression and rewards.
- Strong written documentation and verbal skills.

- In-depth knowledge of mobile and online games. Gambling experience is a plus.
- 5+ years experience working on published products for mobile, console or desktop.
- Independent, creative, proactive thinking with a "getting things done!" attitude.

BENEFITS

- 25 days holiday (excluding bank holidays)
- Private Health Insurance
- Pension Plan
- Cycle to Work Scheme
- Season Ticket Loan
- Access to Employee Assistance Programme
- Training and Development

If you want to be part of an ambitious, innovative and focused start-up, surrounded by a friendly, inspiring and highly experienced team who will always have your back, apply now!

OUR VALUES

Never Settle: When everyone else is doing the same, we're doing something brand new. We do only what's best for our customers and players through constant innovation and persistent drive. Think differently. Always make the brave choice. Always move forward.

One Team: No matter your background. No matter your job title. You are Funfair. We may think independently, but we collaborate together. Be social. Inspire and be inspired. Be open to all we do so we can move forward and change the industry together.

Fair's Fair: Fairness runs at the core of our business and heart of our culture. Customers, consumers, community and colleagues; we treat all with integrity and respect. Our Products may be trustless, but trust is key to how we interact. All opinions are valid, all individuals are respected, and all get a fair deal.

Seriously Fun: It is our job to entertain, so let's enjoy the ride while we do. Show off your individuality and drive our creative spirit so players get the enjoyment they deserve. Embrace and encourage the weird, the different. Work hard, but seriously, have fun!
